16 On April 2, 2024, this Court ordered Mr. Pope released from federal custody, with the 17 hope that Placer County would pick him up on its warrant and then release him so that Mr. Pope
18 could attend court-mandated in-patient drug treatment. (Doc. 12.) The Order was issued. (Doc.
19 15.) Shortly after the issuance of that release Order, Defense counsel was notified by Mr. Pope's 20 counsel in the Placer County case that he believes it will not be possible for Mr. Pope to be 21 released to treatment in that case. This would mean that Mr. Pope would sit in Placer County
22 custody and not be available for the resolution of this federal case until done with his state case
23 and any resulting commitments. This was not the intent of the parties, Pretrial, or the Court.

24 //

25 //

1 Accordingly, the Defense requests that the Court revoke the previously-issued release
2 order and remand Mr. Pope to the custody of the Marshals.
